TWO MEN AND BOAT MISSING

While endeavoring to sail a twentyfoot sloop from Bayou Casotte to a point near Ocean Rest on Pascagoula bay last Wednesday afternoon, Charles Ray Walker, 30 years old, and Nugent Hall, 24 years, were caught in a heavy norther and blown in the direction of Horn Island. With wind and current against the battling boat it is feared that the men were swept out to sea. Early Thursday Mr. C. H. Delmas sent a rescuing party out on a fishing smack, but the sloop and occupants could not be located. Efforts are being made to find the missing men and some hope is entertained for their safety. Mr. Walker is a native of indiana and lives with his wife and place. Young Hall returned recently

Antonio, Texas. Friday morning Mr. E. J. Ford communicated with the Collector of Customs, Mobile, advising that official of the fruitless efforts of the boats here to find the unfortunate men and urged that the Pensacola Naval Station seaplane service institute a search of the gulf and outlying islands for Walker and Hall. The supposition among seafaring people at this port is that the sloop may have fetched up on Dauphin island and that the men succeeded in finding shelter. If the boat was carried by the wind and currents show on Sabbath; plea guilty and fined to sea there is still hope that they were picked up by the schooners Delta or M. A. Achorn, outward bound last Wednesday forenoon. Mrs. Walker is prostrated with grief and anxlety overthe fate of her husband and young Hall.

Men Rescued As we go to press Walker and Hall have just been landed here by a naval seaplane, having been picked up on the extreme south end of Horn Island by Plane No. 854 from the Pensacola station at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The plane left Pensacola at 11:30 in Custom House. The two men were none the worse for their experience although they had been without food for three days. The plane was in charge of Ensign Scarlett, Chief Engineer Matott, Second Engineer Sege brecht, Pilot Hewitt and Radio Operator Collins.

The seaplane, which landed at Detmas wharf, was visited by hunreds of given an ovation for the rescue, Frederic; judgment for plaintiff for The plane left on the return to Pensacola at 2:30.
